Butzel Long and CLR present Employment Law Seminar Limited Seats Available for April 25 Event

In cooperation with the Pfizer Corporation, Community Legal Resources and Detroit-based law firm Butzel Long are jointly presenting "Employment Law for the Non-for-Profit Agency: Avoiding Pitfalls and Hidden Liabilities" on Tuesday, April 25. The day-long seminar will include a videolinked presentation from New York-based employment law experts and a local Q&A session with Butzel attorneys. Breakfast, lunch and all materials will be provided. The event is free of charge.

Topics to be covered include:

- hiring and firing employees
- drafting employee manuals
- understanding hour and wage laws
- avoiding and defending litigation

Further details, including location information and a full agenda, can be found at the CLR website. To register please contact Ms. Robin Luce at Butzel Long, via email (luce@butzel.com) or fax (313-225- 7080). Include your name, title, organization, email address and telephone.

Ford lawyers offer assistance to Dearborn-based nonprofits

Through a partnership with Community legal Resources, attorneys at Ford Motor Company will provide free legal assistance to nonprofit organizations serving low-income individuals and neighborhoods in Dearborn, home to Ford's headquarters. Assistance is available on general corporate matters, employment and real estate issues, contract review and other matters. Dearborn- based nonprofit organizations should contact Heidi Mucherie at Community Legal Resources to learn more at hamucherie@michiganlegal.org or (313) 964-4130 x226.

CLR Announces New Staff Heidi Mucherie and Sarida Scott join CLR team

CLR is pleased to announce the arrival of two new program staff.

Heidi Mucherie joined CLR in February as our Pro Bono Program Manager. In this newly created position Heidi is responsible for managing requests for legal assistance, matching them with volunteer lawyers and conducting follow up and program evaluation. Because of her background in policy activity, Heidi will also be involved in CLR's advocacy efforts around land redevelopment and transportation issues in the City of Detroit. Heidi was most recently a Planner with the Detroit City Planning Commission.

Sarida Scott joined CLR in April as our Director of Legal Services and Policy. Sarida is responsible for providing direct legal services to clients, and for designing and implementing our educational initiatives, workshops and publications. She also oversees the legal aspects of CLR's policy advocacy work. Sarida was most recently an Assistant Corporation Counsel at the City of Detroit Law Department.

Please join us in welcoming Sarida and Heidi to Community Legal Resources!
