MNA Public Policy Strategies and Tactics Series February 2007 - July 2007

Nonprofit staff, board members, and volunteers should plan to attend the Michigan Nonprofit Association's (MNA) Public Policy Strategies and Tactics series, scheduled from February through July of this year. Community Legal Resources (CLR) is one of the co-sponsors of this series of workshops that is designed to assist nonprofits with advocacy at the state and local levels.

Each of the six workshops is interactive and addresses a specific topic. Topics will include, among others, the basics of nonprofit advocacy and how to approach funders for advocacy support. The presenters vary from MNA staff to representatives from private law firms and various national foundations. The workshops will be held at MNA's Detroit office and sessions run for two to three hours.

CLR encourages clients to take advantage of this unique set of workshops. For more information, including dates, location, and registration fee, click here.
