Upcoming Legal Seminars for Nonprofits

Internet and Intellectual Property Issues October 10; Employment Issues November 2

In cooperation with the Pfizer Corporation, Community Legal Resources and Detroit-based law firm Butzel Long are jointly presenting two day-long seminars for nonprofit executives and board members. Breakfast, lunch and all materials will be provided. Both events are free of charge and will be held at Butzel Long PC, 150 W. Jefferson, downtown Detroit.

REVENUE- GENERATING ACTIVITIES AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY/INTERNET ISSUES FOR NONPROFITS

Tuesday, October 10, 9AM - 5PM

Learn about how to create an income-stream through entrepreneurial activity without jeopardizing your tax- exempt status. Presenters will also address key issues facing nonprofits that use the internet to share information about their programs, including copyright and trademark law and protection of your materials and "brand."

KEY ISSUES IN EMPLOYMENT LAW FOR THE NOT-FOR- PROFIT AGENCY: NAVIGATING THE ROUGH ROAD AHEAD

Thursday, November 2, 9AM - 5PM

Learn the fundamentals of the employment relationship including how to properly hire, evaluate, discipline and, when necessary, fire employees. Presenters will provide guidance concerning policies and procedures necessary to manage risk and provide support to defend against litigation. Managing sick or disabled employees and new laws protecting whistleblowers will also be addressed.

Further details, including location information and a full agenda, can be found here. To register please contact Ms. Robin Luce at Butzel Long via email or fax (313- 225-7080). Include your name, title, organization, email, address and telephone.
