Ordinance Enforcement Part II... continuing the conversation

November 29th @ YouthVille, Wayne County Nuisance Abatement Program

In response to widespread concern about illegal dumping, blighted property and ordinance enforcement in the City of Detroit, CLR is continuing our efforts to create a forum for discussion and identification of resources and ideas. On November 29th we invite you to Part II of our conversation about ordinance enforcement which will include a presentation by assistant corporation counsel Michael Russell on Wayne County's Nuisance Abatement Program. This program provides another tool for aggressively addressing blighted and deteriorated buildings. We'll also continue our discussion from the September meeting about what's working, and what's not, with code enforcement in Detroit neighborhoods.

WHAT: Ordinance Enforcement Part II

WHEN: Wednesday, November 29, 10AM - NOON

WHERE: Youthville Detroit, 7375 Woodward at Grand Blvd. in New Center

Click here to download a fax-back registration form and complete a short survey on what else CLR should be doing to help community groups address blight issues.
