STILL TIME TO REGISTER

9/21 Workshop for Lawyers Interested in Nonprofit Board Service

CLR is pleased to host "Serving on a Nonprofit Board," a three-hour workshop designed and presented by BoardConnect. Developed by Nonprofit Enterprise at Work (NEW), BoardConnect trains potential nonprofit board members and matches them with nonprofit organizations needing their time and talent. The workshop will address nonprofit basics, fiduciary duties of board service, and the work of the nonprofit board, and is a prerequisite to participate in BoardConnect's matching service.

Workshop Details:

Thursday, September 21, 2006, 9AM - Noon

Offices of Barris, Sott, Denn and Driker
211 W. Fort Street, 15th Floor
Detroit, MI 48226

Click here to register online by September 19th (scroll down to the September 21st event for Community Legal Resources volunteers). Cost is $50 per person if you register online. If you'd rather register by telephone, call Jenni at (734) 998-0160 x210. Click here for more information on BoardConnect, or contact Sarida Scott at (313) 964-4130, x227.

UDM Mobile Law Office Looking for Volunteer Lawyers this Fall

Locations in Pontiac, Ferndale, Royal Oak, Oak Park, Detroit

Working with pro bono lawyers, University of Detroit Mercy law students ride the Mobile Law Office to community centers throughout southeast Michigan, where they conduct initial interviews and provide as much immediate legal assistance as possible. 2-3 pro bono lawyers are sought for each site to do intakes on prospective clients and steer people onto the right track if they can. UDM Law faculty and students are involved in the interviews as backup.

More information about the UDM Mobile Law Office can be found here. Attorneys interested in volunteering for any of the dates below should contact David Koelsch by email or at (313) 596-0200.
